

NEWS FROM CADENETTE

WINTER 2025

Cadenette Village School is located on a parched hillside and serves the poorest people in the area. Each day the 75 children make their way up/down the steep barren slopes to learn Math, Creole, French, Social Science, Instruction Civics and Bible from the 8 teachers on staff. Their typical school lunch is rice and vegetables and is prepared over an open charcoal stick fire. Madam Fresnel is the leader of the Village and faithfully ministers to the students and surrounding community residents.
